Announcements

- Senior Citizen Exhibit,
 - Thanks to Bonnie Lutz and Agnes Leaming for organizing and to their “helpers.”
 - Low participation
 - Best of Show: Maria Payer
 - All work and winners will be on the website shortly.
 - Our participation next year is in doubt. It’s a lot of work and senior citizens don’t appear to be interested in participating.
- 2018 Calendar
 - Need three more sponsors for months: February, March, September
 - Will be soliciting artwork/photography for members—must be landscape to be considered for facing pages. May use some verticals on the back cover or other places.
 - Can you help with sponsors?

- Summer project.
 - Subject matter: Some thing ordinary; i.e., Trent Lowe’s sneakers.
- Graystone Cafe.
 - Exchange date: Tuesday, July 11. Featured artist: Harry Salmon
 - Volunteers to be the featured artist at Graystone for 2018 are needed.
- Annie Strack Watercolor Workshop being planned for Saturday, August 26, Ag Center in Mannington. (Pass out info sheets) Sign up on back table. 15 seats available.
- Septemberfest.
 - Saturday, September 9, 10-3. Display only. Members with a vendor’s booth can display their work in our tent and we will direct them to the vendor area in order purchase items.
- Other workshops being planned: Madeleine Kelly, Abstract Acrylic Painting; Bill Ternay, Abstract Painting; Anthony Parisi, Pen and Ink Drawing
- Anyone interested in paying dues should remember to turn in an application form (found in our brochure) with your dues payment to SCAL, PO Box 432, Woodstown, NJ 08070
- Guest speakers: If you have topics for and/or presenters, let me know. I need 7 more before October.

Coming Events:

- September: Mick McAndrews, “Exploring the Magic of Watercolor”

Show and Tell — Members’ artwork and photography

Program—Annie Strack, “Mastering Water and Reflections in Watercolor.”
